The "Gunner" Here Again

Melbourne-born Mr. L. J. Channing, secretary and coach of the visiting Chinese team, was here for the Olympic Games in his journalistic capacity, and also accompanied the tourists in 1953.

A former sports editor of several Chinese newspapers, and currently prominent in several Hong Kong sporting associations, Mr. Channing is generally known as "The Gunner" in Press and athletic circles, because of his hard-hitting bluntness, both in his verbal and written critiques.

OLD FRIENDS IN TODAY'S TEST

Many Chinese Players Here Before

NO less than 12 of the Chinese players whom we welcome here to-day have played in Melbourne before, either in 1953 or 1955, and come back to us as old friends. Indeed, for two of them, this is the third visit.

We met centre-half Ko Po Keung, full-backs Seto Yiu and Lau Yee, and inside forward Chu Wing Keung in 1955.

And right wingers Seto Man and Ho Cheung Yau were here both in 1953 and 1955.

Hence we are confident that, from their past experience, they will readily recognise the warmth and sincerity of the welcome that they will receive from our Association, our players, and Victorian soccer supporters in general.

Spectators who have not yet seen a Hong Kong team in action will enjoy, to-day and to-morrow, a visual demonstration of sportsmanship double-distilled to its purest essence.

A Word About the Chinese Players

THE soccer team of our current visitors, the Eastern Athletic Association, toured Australia in 1953, and was the first Chinese team to beat Australia in a Test series. Previous Tests, in 1923, 1927, and 1941, were won by Australia. Eight of the 1953 Chinese tourists are included in this year's team.

YONG PAY DOR: Goalkeeper. Has represented Hong Kong on many occasions against visiting Continental teams, and was in goal for Nationalist China in the Asian Cup, 1956. Australia 1953.

TAM CHI KEUNG: Goalkeeper. Another representative 'keeper, capable and reliable.

SETO YIU: Right full-back. Young mainstay of Hong Kong representative teams. Has toured the East extensively. Australia 1955.

LAU YEE: Left full-back. An automatic choice for this position in representative Chinese teams. Asian Cup 1956. Australia 1955.

CHAN HUNG: Right half. Noted for determined tackling, and shrewd attacking distribution. Australia 1953.

JULIO HENRY TOLEDO: Right half. Fast, sound, and powerful player who can play right full-back and who has represented China on numerous occasions in these positions.

KO PO KEUNG: Captain and centre half. Another automatic choice in representative teams, and has toured extensively. Plenty of dash. Australia 1955.

LEE BING CHIU: Centre half. Although normally a pivot, he is versatile, and has often switched to the forward line when things were going badly, and turned possible defeat into a win. Australia 1953.

CHAU MAN CHI: Left half. Calm, stylish, clever, and accurate. Always dangerous in attacking assists or solos. Australia 1953.

LEE KOK WAH: Left half. Another determined tackler and potent attacking wing-half who has played representative football and toured extensively.

SETO MAN: Outside right. Speedy forward with a good shot and knowledge of positional play which permits him to switch positions when required. An automatic representative selection for years. Australia 1953 and 1955.

HO CHEUNG YAU: Outside right. Fast, elusive, dangerous with either foot, and also has positional versatility. Australia 1953 and 1955.

HO CHING FUN: Outside right. Veteran representative player, affectionately known to Hong Kong fans as "Darkie," who has toured England and the Continent. Australia 1953.

KUNG WAH KIT: Inside right. One of the youngsters in the side whose youthful speed and impetuosity make him a constant danger.

KWOK YU: Inside right. Sometimes used as a half-back, Kwok has a reputation for both dangerous attack and fearless defence.

YEUNG WAI TOO: Centre-forward. Youthful representative player, fast to the ball, unselfish distributor, and an accurate shot.

WONG TAK FOOK: Centre-forward. Another youngster with plenty of speed and stamina whose bustling play requires watching by the opposing defence.

CHU WING KEUNG: Inside left. A star veteran with 10 years of representative football behind him. Cool, fast, shrewd, and accurate. Australia 1955.

LO KWOK TAI: Inside left. Young, intelligent, and tireless, Lo also does duty on the left wing. Often a Hong Kong representative, he has attractive ball control.

HAU CHING TO: Outside left. Another veteran representative who has toured England and the Continent as well as the East. Although small in stature, he can really "send" a ball. Australia 1953.

SLAVIA, GEELONG OUT OF CUP

SUNSHINE City repeated its 1956 third round shock success by eliminating Slavia from the Dockerty Cup competition at Sunshine last Saturday.

Last year, J.U.S.T. was Sunshine City's third-round victim, when it went down to the Second Division club 0-3. Slavia's losing margin was 1-3.

Slavia was first to score, but Sunshine City then turned on its bustling, swinging, unsettling Cup-tie game which netted three goals before half-time.

Going into defence in the second half, Sunshine City held Slavia stymied, maintaining its lead to the end.

No surprise, but interesting, was Box Hill's 3-1 win over Geelong at Box Hill. Beaten twice by Geelong in League matches this season, it proved how hard Box Hill is to score against at home, where it has yielded only 16 goals in 15 matches.

It also proved that the everything-to-gain, little-to-lose type of football will very often upset teams capable of sturdy finesse like Geelong.

The schemozzle at Royal Park, where interfering spectators caused abandonment of the Hellenic-Wilhelmina match after 40 minutes, will be decided to-morrow, when the tie will be played as a curtain-raiser to the China-Victoria international.

Only Polonia's defence showed good soccer at Brighton, where the home team, though scratchy, held the visitors scoreless for 87 minutes, when Brunnbauer netted out of a scramble in front of goal.

Brighton's forwards continually tried to force their way through Polonia's rocky defence, despite the fact that they found Capobus, Pedzimaz, and Jakubowski far too sturdy on the ground. Only Brian Thomas sent up well-centred kicks into the goal-square from the left wing-half whenever he got the opportunity — the only type of attack likely to unsettle Polonia's wall of defence.

The only unexpected feature of the remaining matches was the 6-2 margin of superiority of Juventus over George Cross. The anticipated ding-dong struggle did not eventuate, and Juventus safely held the Maltese team throughout.

J.U.S.T., Hakoah, and Moreland received their expected safe passages into the quarter-finals from Prahran, Maccabi, and Park Rangers respectively.

Dockerty Cup Quarter-Finals

The quarter-finals of the Dockerty Cup will be played on Saturday, September 7.

The draw will be made during an interval at Olympic Park today, and broadcast over the public address system.

No Peace for Dyskin

Busiest man on the field in last Saturday's Hakoah-Maccabi Cup tie was Morrie Dyskin, Maccabi's 'keeper. He is seen here getting rid of a well-centred corner kick over Bill Harburn's shoulder.

Len Young 'Flu Victim

After creating havoc in the soccer fraternity, influenza reached the Young family, and finally bowled over Len Young last weekend.

Last check on Tuesday revealed the partially recovered Mrs. Young and a doctor trying to keep Len in bed for at least another few days, his being the serious type of 'flu.

AUSTRIA IN STRIDE

OUR local Austrian World Cup team put on the most attractive performance seen this year when they defeated Italy 4-2 last Sunday at Olympic Park. Gottschlich, Majer, Brunnbauer, Neuhold and Berner showed understanding, combination, and distribution that caught the admiration of everyone present.

Ivan Senisen, Lions' playing-coach, is hobbling around with his knee in plaster as the result of trouble picked up in the game, Fairfield v. Lions.

Bill Curran voiced two hopes last Saturday — that his ankle would stand up to the refereeing of the curtain-raiser to-day, and that he would be able to tell us by to-day whether he is the daddy of a boy or girl.

Liaison Officer for the Chinese team is Mr. Charles Dodd, and the Manager of to-morrow's Victorian team is Mr. Tony Kiburg, with Mr. Bill Campbell as Assistant Manager.

When Hellenic's coach, clinging to home-ground advantage, refused Wilhelmina's offer of the use of the Dutchmen's ground at Hawthorn, plus the entire site, he couldn't possibly have known about Wilhelmina's poor record on their own ground. The offer was made mainly to avoid what happened at Royal Park last Saturday — an abandonment due to spectator-interference.

At the Special General Meeting called to discuss the 1956 balance sheet, the financial debate was over within 15 minutes. The two or three queries were of a very minor nature. Association Treasurer, Mr. Alex Kerr, who would be justified in facing such an inquisition in fear and trembling, must have felt like any prosecuted citizen who has just heard the welcome words "Case dismissed."

Sunshine City's dance-and-supper social to-night in the Band Hall, Sunshine Park, was organised to help player Jerry Murphy, whose leg was broken in a recent match. Tough going for Jerry, a family man.

WEST HAM MAN SEEKS SPONSOR

BERT O'Shea, a soccer fan with Brighton Junior connections, tells us that a 32-year-old friend of his in England wishes to migrate to Australia with his wife and his eight- and 10-year-old daughters.

He is George Gray, who played centre-forward with West Ham and Aldershot for 10 years, and is a qualified coach. Sponsors should get in touch with Bert at 61 Parkmore Road, East Bentleigh (Phone, LU 2785).

Fiorentina, the Italian club which took over Brunswick's Third Division Reserves obligations, are still undefeated, and although they started late and have played five games less than the rest of the League, they are only one point behind joint leaders, Coburg and Lions. Un-defeated and undrawn in 11 games, they have kicked 45 goals and have conceded ONLY ONE. A record? Their clean and attractive football will be welcomed into a Metropolitan League next year.

Juniors to Adelaide for Skolnik Cup

THE Senior Association will provide finance for the visit to Adelaide of a Victorian Under 17 Junior team to contest the Skolnik Cup. Mr. Don Joiner, Treasurer of the Junior Association, will leave with the boys as Manager on Monday, and the match will be played under lights on Wednesday night.

The team is as follows: Dobson (Sunshine City), Mallia (Lions), Smith (Preston), Fallahey (Brighton), Lightfoot (Capt., St. Kilda), Kucko (Preston), Lucas (St. Kilda), Kovacs (Essendon), Culbard (Vice-Capt., Sunshine City), Stevenson (St. Kilda), Romeyn (L.V.A.). Reserves: Rogers (Army Apprentices), Duggan (Pahran).

★ ★ ★
Denis Chambers says that, when the Wesley College Under 15's scored their first win last week, they were as thrilled as though they had just won the premiership.

★ ★ ★
Yallourn has an Under 17 Junior team which they would like to see included in the Metropolitan Junior League. They naturally lack competition in Gippsland. Main objection in the city appears to be the cost of transport to Yallourn, but Mr. Ellis, of Yallourn, points out that each club would only be required to make the trip once a year, whereas Yallourn is ready, willing, and able to make the trip to the city 10 or 12 times if necessary.

Obstruction Maybe?

Memo: Issy Peters—"A player . . . when not playing the ball . . . obstructing an opponent . . . shall be penalised . . . etc." "Out of the way," says Aldo Sacco. "Thanks, Issy," says Morrie Dyskin, as he scoops up the ball. This was an incident in the Hakoah-Maccabi Cup tie last week.

Victorian Manager of Test Team.

On behalf of the Australian Soccer Council, Mr. W. R. Thomas, Chairman of the Victorian Association, announced on Tuesday night that Mr. Fred Lang had been appointed Manager of the Australian Test Team for to-day's match against China.

With Test Team Managers usually coming from Sydney headquarters, the appointment was significant, Mr. Thomas said, and he felt that Mr. Lang was entitled to warm congratulations.

Although they coasted through the second half, the touring Hungarians had no trouble beating Australia 9-2 in Sydney last Saturday. Zoltan Friedmansky scored four goals, and Ferenc Szigeti, who went in at half-time, netted three. Mate Fenyvesi, the speedy, sparkling little left-winger, again dazzled the crowd with the ball-control of his highly educated feet. Australia's two goals were scored within four minutes after the second period began by Graham McMillan and Jack Lennard, but the home team's aggression ended there.
